Chalet Abbaye is our farmhouse chalet in the delightful French village of St Jean D'Aulps, which is part of the Portes du Soleil.

The Chalet sleeps ten people very comfortably and has everything you need for a perfect stay including a hot tub on the terrace allowing you to enjoy the mountain views. See the Chalet Details pages for more.

Chalet Abbaye is usually rented as self catered although we can organise breakfast deliveries from the local boulangerie and provide 3 course evening meals if required, for more information on this please see Dining under the Chalet Details.

There are dozens of things to do in the area throughout the year. We've gathered some information about the main winter and summer activities as a starting point for exploring.

Our Photo Gallery is full of albums of visitors, groups, views around the Chalet, the area and of us.
